American & Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY,
SOLICITOR OF PATENTS.
Late Agent of the U S Patent Office Washington (under the Act of 1837)
76 State Street, opposite Kilby Street
BOSTON.

AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

The agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, of ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is more successful at the Patent Office than the subscriber; and as success is the best proof of advantages and ability, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents.

These besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.

"I regard Mr Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHARLES MASON, Commissioner of Patents."

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office. EDMUND BURKE, Late Commissioner of Patents."

"Mr R H Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted and that is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges." JOHN TAGGART.

During eight months, the subscriber in course of his large practice, made on twice rejected applications SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor by the Commissioner of Patents. R H EDDY.

Lee's Army this Side the Rappahannock—Hooker's Army in Pursuit—Both Armies Heavily Reinforced—Proclamation by the Governor of Penn.—He calls for 50,000 Volunteers—Proclamation by the President—100,000 Militia Called for to Serve Six Months—The Trouble about the Draft in Indiana—Arrest of Armed Traitors—Intelligence from Rebel Papers—Heavy Losses acknowledged in the Late Battles—Rebel Cavalry in Maryland—Evacuation of Hagerstown, Md.

NEW YORK, 15th.

The Times editorially says that information reached this city yesterday, from Washington that Lee's army 90,000 strong was on this side of the Rappahannock, marching northward, and Gen Hooker was hastening north to prevent the advance of the rebels.

Lee before the close of last week crossed it would seem by fords above Fredericksburg and apparently pushing for the Orange & Alexandria Railroad.

Lee has been joined by large detachments from North Carolina and the Blackwater and all his cavalry has been massed on the North Fork of the Rappahannock.

Longstreet's corps lately at Culpepper has doubtless been joined to Lee's forces and our army recently has been heavily reinforced from the Nansemond, Pennsylvania and elsewhere.

No official or semi-official indications of these movements have been received from Washington. The Times says, the accounts we have obtained from other sources, but there seems to be agreement that our chief army and the most of the rebels are both on the move and on such a route and so close together that they can hardly avoid a collision soon.

NEW YORK, 15th.

A despatch dated morning of the 12th at headquarters ... army corps states that troops and wagons have been passing there all night. The troops of the 5th corps are still guarding the fords, with orders to be in readiness to move at a moment's notice.

The Herald says editorially: "It is evident that an active campaign is now in operation on the Rappahannock, Harper's Ferry, the Shenandoah Valley and upper ... of the Potomac ... indicated by recent rebel movements. Our army has also changed its base supplies ... Creek to ... "

A despatch to the Herald dated Walnut Hills June 7th, near Vicksburg, ... of sharp shooting and bombardment continues, the ... are no greater.

Gen Sherman made an advance to day and is reported to have succeeded in entering one of the enemy's works.

HARRISBURG Pa, 15th.

A PROCLAMATION.

The State of Pennsylvania is again threatened with invasion and an army of rebels is approaching our borders.

The President of the United States has issued his proclamation calling upon the State for 50,000 men. I now appeal to all the citizens of Pennsylvania, who love liberty and are mindful of the history and traditions of their revolutionary fathers, and who feel that it is a sacred duty to guard and maintain the free institutions of our country, who hate treason and its abettors and who are willing to defend their homes and firesides, and do invoke them to rise in their might and rush to the rescue in this hour of imminent peril.

The issue is now of preservation or destruction. It involves considerations paramount to all matter of mere expediency, and all questions of local interest, all ties social and political.

All ties of a personal and partisan character sink by comparison into insignificance. It is now to be determined by deeds, not by words, at once, who are for us and who are against us.

That it is the purpose of the enemy to invade our borders with all the strength he can command is now apparent. Our only defence rests upon the determined action of the citizens of our free commonwealth.

I therefore call upon the people of Pennsylvania capable of bearing arms to enroll themselves in military organizations, and to encourage all others to give aid and assistance to the efforts which will be put forth for the protection of the State and the salvation of our common country.

HARRISBURG, 15th.

Despatches received to day from the operators at Chambersburg and Hagerstown give the information of negroes to the effect that the rebel cavalry arrived at Perryville and Martinsburg about noon, and at the latter place there had been considerable hard fighting.

Telegraph communication is destroyed between Winchester and Martinsburg, the lines having been broken by the rebels about 11 this morning 14th.

Gen [illegible] has been driven by a large force of rebels from Perryville to Bunker Hill. The enemy are also at Winchester.

The tidings from Muddy Branch and Nolan's Ferry indicate that warm work has been going on there. The capital and principal cities and towns are in ... danger.

A meeting of the monied corporations of the State will be held to morrow to take into consideration the present startling aspect of affairs.

[By the President of the United States.]

A PROCLAMATION.

Whereas, The armed insurrectionary combinations now existing in several of the States are threatening to make inroads into the States of Maryland, Western Virginia, Pennsylvania and Ohio, requiring immediately an additional military force for the service of the United States; now, therefore,

I, Abraham Lincoln, President of the United States, and Commander-in-Chief of the Army and Navy thereof, and of the Militia of the several States, when called into actual service, do hereby call into the service of the United States 100,000 militia from the States following, viz:

From the State of Maryland 10,000, from the State of Pennsylvania 50,000, from the State of Ohio 30,000, from the State of Western Virginia 10,000, to be mustered into the service of the United States forthwith, and serve for the period of six months from the date of such muster into such service unless sooner discharged.

To be mustered in as infantry, artillery and cavalry in proportions which will be made known through the War Department which Department will also designate the several places of rendezvous where these militia are to be organized according to the rules and regulations of the ... service under such order as may hereafter be issued.

The States aforesaid will be respectively credited, under the enrolment act, for the militia service rendered under this proclamation.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed. Done at the City of Washington this 15th day of June in the year of our Lord 1863, and of the independence of the United States the 87th.

(Signed) ABRAHAM LINCOLN.
By the President.
W. H. SEWARD, Sec'y of State.

NEW YORK, 15th.

A Panama letter states that a steamer from Valparaiso brought over a quarter of a million in treasure for England.

The captain of the American ship Geo Green at Callao reports saw a ship on fire off Cape Horn. Prepared to run down to her assistance when he discovered a steamer with the rebel flag flying bearing down for the George Green. Another large American ship appeared when the steamer made for her and the George Green escaped. It is thought the steamer is the British steamer Fusia Zarma, bound to San Francisco which was in that neighborhood at the time.

CINCINNATI, 15th.

Special despatches from Indianapolis say the detachment of soldiers sent to Rush County Indiana to arrest all persons engaged in resisting the enrolment have returned. General Mansfield arrested a number of suspicious persons and required them to give bonds for their future good behavior.

A company of troops left for Fulton Co., on Saturday night, where the papers of the enrolling officer has been seized and destroyed by a mob.

Seventeen citizens of Johnson county had been found gathered together in the woods armed with rifles and revolvers. These men were arrested and taken to Indianapolis.

One hundred and sixty Tennessee conscripts had been recruited from among rebel prisoners at Camp Morton for the 5th Tennessee cavalry.

NEW YORK, 15th.

Capt. Lambert, of whaling schooner King fisher, says his vessel was captured and burned by pirate Alabama March 23 in lat 12 ... lon 26 ... After stating the facts Captain L gives a long card of admiring thanks to the pirates for treating him decently while on board their craft.

Captain Grant, of ship Louisa Hatch reports sailed from Cardiff March ... for Ceylon, with coal, was captured May ... in lat ... lon ... Both of the above captains arrived at ... from Brazil, in brig Jabotes.

NEW YORK, 15th.

The brig Arabella, from Aspinwall arrived this ... She reports being boarded by pirate ... on the 12th, in lat 33 20 lon 71 30, and taken as a prize and released on a bond of $40,000. The captain said he intended to destroy all vessels, and reported having destroyed two vessels on the morning of the 12th and sent their crews to Philadelphia.

BALTIMORE, 15th.

The State Prison and City Jail are so completely jammed with all sorts of prisoners and criminals that the authorities ask to know what to do with them.

At the cavalry fight near Kelly's Ford on the Rappahannock on the 9th inst, Brig General Fitz Hugh Lee, a son of Major General Robert E Lee, was very severely wounded. Capt. Farley of Stuart's staff was killed, Col Frank Hampton was killed, Colonel Butler of South Carolina had his leg shot off, Capt Jones of Lee's cavalry was killed. The battle was one of the most severely contested during the war.

There are detained in Libby Prison 135 Yankees, 95 of whom were captured near Rome, Ga. They are detained together with citizen prisoners until the United States Government comes to terms on the issue pending between our and their commissioners.

PHILADELPHIA, 15th.

Our troops are now passing here in their retreat from Hagerstown to Chambersburg. Hagerstown has been evacuated. All the rolling stock of the railroad, and all the stores have been removed. Rumor fixes the rebel force at 10,000, but this is probably an exaggeration.

NEW YORK, 15th.

The Post prints the following despatch from Washington—

It has been ascertained that Lee's advance cavalry have crossed the Potomac at Nolan's Ferry, and are now at Hagerstown, Md, in force.

It is said General Milroy still holds Martinsburg where he contests Longstreet's advance.

Hooker's entire army is in motion.

Yesterday it was reported that his force, excepting a simple division, was moving towards Warrenton near which it was supposed he designed to cross the Rappahannock with a view of advancing towards Culpepper, 20 miles distant, where Lee's forces were concentrating.

Today we hear that Hooker has changed his position at Warrenton and is moving towards an unknown destination.

Second despatch. There has been no fighting so far at or near Culpepper. The indications point to an attempt by the enemy to get into the Shenandoah Valley through the lower Gaps.

DIRECT INTELLIGENCE FROM CHARLESTON. A lady who has resided about two years in Charleston arrived at Boston yesterday having left Richmond on the 3d inst, and gives some interesting particulars of matters South. The Union sentiment in Charleston is said to be very strong among those of northern and foreign birth, and even among many natives of the South, while on the other hand there is deep anxiety and longing for peace. Those who believe in the Confederate government and denounce the North still hope for peace on any terms, on account of the devastation and ruin of war. This sentiment is on the increase.

It was generally expected that our troops would take Charleston at the last attack on Fort Sumter. The fort was badly damaged, and a Union man who sailed around it after the attack told our informant that he saw five large holes in it caused by projectiles, one of which "was large enough to drive an omnibus through." It was generally believed that it was too much damaged to be thoroughly repaired without being entirely rebuilt, and that a few more shot would have entirely demolished it.

Blockade running is especially active and vessels are constantly arriving. The city is often filled with merchants and speculators from all parts of the confederacy who attend the auction sales of goods thus obtained.

Criticism on the acts of their government is frequent, and a strong party feeling against Davis exists. There were but few troops in and about Charleston many having been sent to Vicksburg. The opinion was often expressed in Charleston and Richmond that the loss of Vicksburg would ruin their cause, because their only avenue of supplies would be cut off.

There was no suffering at Charleston from a lack of supplies but everything was remarkably dear. Flour had been $75 per barrel but had decreased to $35. Ham was sold at $1,50 a pound. Ladies shoes, $20 a $30, calicoes $3 to $5 a yard, ladies hats, $75 to $100.

There was considerable fear of the negroes. Those near the sea coast had been removed by thousands to large camps in the interior. Many had been hung. A short time before our informant left twenty-two were hung at one time on suspicion of plotting an insurrection in the vicinity of Charleston. Nearly all of them understand the condition of affairs and are close spectators of the progress of events.

THE CAPTURE OF YAZOO CITY. Correspondents furnish an account of the federal expedition to Yazoo city from which we quote:

Our men visited the deserted camps which were very numerous and carried off gold watches, valuable books, clothing, bedding, furniture, &c. I procured a number of valuable books, a coin pitcher and a set of cut glass tumblers, which I intend bringing home. Numbers of our men procured such works as Scott's, Smollett's, Dickens, &c. Captain Breese of the Black Hawk took possession of a magnificent billiard table valued, I suppose at four hundred dollars. You cannot imagine the immense quantity of valuable stuff brought aboard. Their small arms were lying in every direction around the bluff.

In the morning, we applied the torch to every house and tent. The destruction was awful—the guns were rolled into the river, and the fortifications blown up.

The country through which we passed was but thinly populated and poorly cultivated—Everywhere were to be seen signs of want. We were met on the banks by contrabands who were desirous of being brought aboard and taken North. A number of the white population received us with cheers and the waving of handkerchiefs. They seemed glad to see us again. I cannot describe to you this desolate country.

We kept a close lookout for the rams which have always been a terror to us. As we neared the city we discovered heavy volumes of smoke ascending and soon came across the ... Republic, an immense Mississippi packet and the ocean steamer Mobile, which was being fitted up for a gunboat and was now ready for plating. Both were enveloped in flames and past saving. The enemy had fired them at our approach.

When within a mile of the city a flag of truce met us accompanied by some five of the citizens of the town, in a small boat. They seemed terrified at thy approach and came aboard and handed the captain some documents and then surrendered the city. We were now made easy as we knew that we were to meet no batteries. The captain told the committee that no insult or injury would be offered to any of the citizens, and he hoped that all would remain quietly in town. At the same time he stated that all public property would be destroyed, while all private property would be respected.—The committee seemed to be composed of the first men of the town.

All of the large steamers had left at our approach, and pursuit was in vain. We found upon the stocks a tremendous ram gunboat three hundred feet long seventy feet beam and eighteen feet hold. The people stated that no work had been done upon her since last August, and they had no idea that it ever would be finished.

THE PRESIDENT ON THE EMPLOYMENT OF COLORED TROOPS. At a meeting held in New York on Thursday evening last, in favor of raising a colored legion, to be under the command of General Fremont, the following statement was made of President Lincoln's reception of the proposition:

The President listened to the memorial and the remarks of presentation with earnestness, and indeed solemnity, and replied that the policy of the Government, so far as he represented it, and his will controlled it, was fixed, and that the Government would avail itself of any plans or instrumentalities to obtain the co-operation of the emancipated slaves of the South as a military organization (applause), that we had been drifting to this result, and had partly been compelled to it by the exigencies of the war, that he was thoroughly in earnest in his purpose, and he only labored under embarrassment in regard to how to carry it out. He confessed the partial failure in recruiting colored troops both North and South, but admitted their patriotism, their enthusiasm and their devotion to the cause of liberty. He said to the Committee, "You ask a suitable command for General Fremont. There I see difficulty. General Fremont is the second officer in rank in the active service of the United States, a suitable command would certainly mean a department. I have not a department vacancy to give him; I do not think I would be justifiable in dismissing any commander of a department for the purpose of placing him upon duty as contemplated by your memorial."

He discussed the portion of the memorial referring to the troops being commanded by any particular officers contemplated in the petition, and said that contingencies were liable to occur in which it would be necessary to transfer them to another officer—as for example, in defence of the capital, or any threatened point. To this the deputation replied that in such an exigency it was of course understood that these troops were to be used in warding off the impending danger. Taking a map colored light and dark, to represent the free and the slave States, and pointing to several dark spots upon it—one in the vicinity of Vicksburg—he said, "My view of it is, that the colored people will have to take those places, and will have to hold them." (Applause.) I desire to accomplish this result." He had tried to get officers of high rank to undertake it, but could not awaken their enthusiasm or inspire them with an energy that would give success to this thing. He would like to have any man who could do it to take hold of it, and he believed General Fremont was the man to do it; that he was peculiarly adapted to this work, the course of events, his personal history, the impression of the people at large, as well as the attachment of the colored people to him, all pointed to him as the man for this work, and he (the President) would like to have him do it.

Loyal men are asked to vote so to bring the democratic party into power at the next election—because that party has taken a position against arbitrary arrests by the military authorities Place the democracy in power, they say, and we will defend the liberty of the citizen Now it is an ill time to divide and distract the loyal public sentiment, when the fires of rebellion are raging over the land, and the whole strength of the people is required to save the national cause; and the motives of men who are taking this time to sow fear, distrust, and hatred of the Government among the people, are a good deal more than questionable But without dwelling upon this view of the case, we ask every man when he is urged to vote for the democratic party because it opposes arbitrary arrests, to inquire at the same time, what else the Democratic party opposes—and what it favors. Opposition to arbitrary arrests is only an ostensible pretext of opposition to the Government as now [illegible] The real motive of the leaders, the men who will control the action of the party, is OPPOSITION TO THE WAR—a determination to prevent if possible the suppression of the rebellion—and a wish to bring about a compromise by which slavery and the continued domination of the slaveholders shall be secured, or if the rebels refuse "reconstruction" on that "liberal" basis, then to consent to separation, to disunion and to all the demoralizing and fatal consequences to our country, which will inevitably follow

This is what is involved in voting for the democratic party Every loyal man who has been asked to do so because he apprehends evil consequences to civil liberty from the acts of the President, should pause and ask himself what consequences will follow the success of the democratic party Let him study carefully the speeches and the papers of those who lead and control that party, and he will find that alarm for the fate of civil liberty is but a subterfuge and a pretext to secure votes, and a blind of their real purposes They are the men who have opposed the war and sympathized with the rebellion from the very beginning The men who now lead the democracy, and edit its organs are many of them the same who, when [illegible] Sumner was assaulted and taken by rebel [illegible] arms, opposed any "coercion" of these rebels and denounced the efforts of the Government to sustain itself as "an unholy war". The [illegible] the same men are now high in authority and influence in the democratic party, and lead and control its action They have always been as bitter in opposition to the raising of troops and money wherewith to resist the rebels, as they pretend to be against "arbitrary arrests" They have uniformly denounced every act for increasing our arms as "unconstitutional" No man has been more earnest and constant in this than he who is now held up as a victim and martyr for "free speech"—Vallandigham himself Bu [illegible] measure of the Government for raising men or money has escaped his vituperative tongue He, in common with nearly every other leader of influence, has endeavored to obstruct the military operations of the Government at every step, by clamorous cries of "unconstitutionality!" We have before us in the latest number of the organ of the democracy in this section, a bitter and calumnious tirade of more than a column, made up of such objurgations as the following.

"Take down the dusty volume containing the "constitution of your country, Abraham Lincoln, and tell us where was your authority for "calling seventy five thousand men into the ser-"vice of your administration!"

"Where your power or the power exercised "by Congress to deluge the country with a cur-"rency unknown to the constitution?"

"Where the clause giving you or your Con-"gress power to call to arms nearly all the able-"bodied men of the North?"

These are but the ordinary expressions of men who have from the first denounced every movement to suppress the rebellion as "unconstitutional."

They now oppose both the enlisting of colored men and the drafting of white men, as unconstitutional They would, in fact, under pretense of maintaining the constitution, deliver the country, bound hand and foot, into the power of a haughty, vindictive, and cruel slave aristocracy, and overthrow all our free institutions

Loyal citizens! will you vote for the democratic party?

Greater men than I have occasionally said severe things—take Abner Burnham of Androscoggin county, for instance. Abner has a son in one of our nine months' regiments His term of service has nearly expired, and Abner has work for him to do, and can't wait for his discharge Furthermore, he won't wait, and so he writes to the Adjutant General a sharp and characteristic letter I found it a day or two ago in a barrel of waste paper in the cellar of the State House I asked further if those papers were good for anything, and he said he guessed not, so I abstracted it, and the following is a true copy of Abner's communication

"Lewis June the 5th 1863—Dere Sir

My son that is in the 23 Regiment of Main Company I under Captain D. I demand him fore wun. as I never giv my consent and you Dun enlisted him here By the tenth of this Month if you dont I shal Make you More trouble—

from Abner Burnham to Mr John Hodgon

I want you to answer this imediately and deliver him to Portland I am agoing to have him here by the 10th of the Month of june the year 1863 it that is only law in this

State of Main"

We had a circus here a few days ago Helios of the Port land Press likes circuses, therefore he borrowed a quarter and went Being late he couldn't get a seat, and so he took to the earth It rained hard and the ground was wet Helios became aware of that fact when he got up to visit the tent of the fat woman He felt unpleasant (I know what the sensation is—experienced it once, seated on the after thwart of a yawl boat as she shipped a sea over the stern Helios didn't go to see the fat woman, but went home much like little Bo-peep's sheep He felt disgusted about that circus, and therefore wrote an admirable puff to the Press, in which he told some sterling truths, which the good people of Augusta cannot controvert, and ought to be ashamed of, but one or two of his assertions are slightly incorrect He says "a rich aristocracy who will wait until the second night of a chaste performance at Meonian Hall to see whether it proves respectable, hurry at the first notice of a circus, and I made an intensely democratic tête one may see le bon ton and les chiffonniers crammed into promiscuous and uncomfortable proximity with no thought of inconvenience"

There is no such person as le bon ton in this town, and never was May be he means Jim Boynton, who might have been here, and if he was I'll be bound he paid his quarter, like a man, had a good seat, and didn't grumble—Les chiffonniers don't live here now, that family moved to Belgrade more than two years ago. Excepting these trifling errors, Helios is correct, and I wish a copy of his letter could be read by every family in this city

Lieut Sweeney left this afternoon for Augusta, where he is ordered to report to the A. A. Provost Marshal General for duty in the "invalid corps."—Portland Courier, 12th.

CHAMBERSBURG, Pa., 15th.

Lieut Palmer, just returned from Greencastle to fight his way out two miles this side that place. He reports that the enemy are advancing in three columns, one towards Mercersburg and Cool Mountains. It is not known whether they will proceed in short columns or concentrate.

A large fire is seen in the direction of Greencastle now.

HARRISBURG, Pa., 15th.

The rebels entered Chambersburg at 9 o'clock [illegible]

NEW YORK, 16th.

Gov Andrew, who is here, has tendered to the Government the services of all the available Massachusetts militia, including the recently re-[illegible] 44th, 3d and 5th regiments.

It is understood that all the New York City [illegible] regiment have been ordered to the seat of [illegible]

ALBANY, 15th.

The Governor received today despatches from Washington calling for 20,000 militia men immediately. He has summoned the several Major Generals of the State Militia to Albany for consultation, and taken steps for the rapid organization of the militia. General Sanford telegraphs he can bring 5000 men without delay, but the General commanding the 8th division promises 5,000 more. A draft will be made under the State law to fill up to their maximum number all the militia regiments in the State, and from these the 20,000 will be supplied.

They are called upon to serve six months, and will be credited to the State as three years men, under the impending national draft. They are to serve without State or National bounties.

The long-shore men, elevator employes, and a few railroad laborers, are on a strike here for 12 hours per day. 200 or 300 of them paraded the streets to-day.

BALTIMORE, 15th.

General Milroy was surrounded at Winchester by 14,000 rebels, but after a desperate fight, cut his way through and united with our forces at Harper's Ferry.

Our forces at Martinsburg have also fallen back upon Harper's Ferry.

BALTIMORE, 15th.

The American's special report from Harper's Ferry, says General Milroy succeeded in cutting his way through the rebel lines, and reached there this forenoon, after evacuating Winchester.

The fighting was desperate and the rebels were repulsed repeatedly with heavy loss.

Finally they were largely reinforced and Gen. Milroy made his arrangements on Sunday to abandon Winchester, finding the rebels were endeavoring closely to invest the place.

He lost some 2000 men in killed, wounded and prisoners.

Military movements are in progress to check the rebel movement in this direction which it would be improper to particularize.

PHILADELPHIA, 15th.

The New York 7th Regiment have offered their services to aid in resisting invasion of Pennsylvania, and are expected to leave for Harrisburg tomorrow.

CINCINNATI, 15th.

Some 278 bales of confiscated cotton were sold at auction to-day. The prices ranged from 80¢ to 1.84 cents per lb. The quality was generally inferior.

PHILADELPHIA, 15th.

The principle citizens of this city have telegraphed to General George Cadwallader, now at Washington, asking him to obtain authority to repair immediately to Philadelphia and organize the troops

CINCINNATI, 15.

Twenty-five hundred mounted rebels dashed into Maysville, Ky, last night. They left this morning, after stealing the guns & horses and arms

Washington, 15th.

Unofficial telegrams from Island No 10 to the 10th have been received. They represent that there has been no material change in affairs at that place.

Our lines around the enemy are gradually being concentrated. The late rains have improved the condition of the army, and the navigation of the Yazoo.

The Richmond Sentinel of Saturday, the 8th, says—

"There is not a word from the Southwest.

There was considerable excitement here yesterday over news that the enemy were exhibiting considerable force on the Peninsula, and advancing in a threatening manner.

We learn that a column of 3000 or 4000 were encamped at Brahamsville, New Kent County Thursday night. Their gunboats are also reported in James river and the Chickahominy.

Our troops on the Peninsula are said to have fallen back to avoid being taken on the flank from the navigable waters."

MEMPHIS, 14th.

Steamer Hiawatha from below with dates to the 10th has arrived.

The situation at Vicksburg is unchanged except that our lines are daily contracted. The late rains have improved the condition of the army.

About 9000 of Kirby Smith's forces are reported to have come up the Washita River and are making demonstrations on the Louisiana side of the River.

Johnston is still receiving reinforcements from the East, and is preparing to move forward.

ST. LOUIS, 15th

There was a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce to-day on the subject of memorializing Secretary Chase in regard to the restrictions on trade with the Northern States.

Geo Walbridge of New York made a speech in which he expressed the opinion that it would be wise for Government, as fast as they took possession of any portion of the Southern States, to throw them open to commerce with the least possible restrictions, since our armies go to extend the blessings of the Federal Constitution, which was itself founded on the necessities of commerce.

The surplus militia of the State have been ordered to drill daily until further orders.

Gov Gamble has ordered an election in the 8th Congressional District, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of John W Noell.

NEW YORK, 16th.

Brig Spartan, from Cienfuegos, reports that on the 11th, off Hatteras, spoke brig Thamia, from Boston 12th, 40 miles east north-east of Hatteras saw a fore and aft schooner on fire. She was of about 350 tons; painted black with white and yellow streaks, gilt figure head, and had all sails set. One of the pirate Clarence's victims, no doubt.

TRENTON, N. J., 15th.

The 26th New Jersey regiment, which arrived here yesterday afternoon, was handsomely received in this city today. They will be mustered out of service in three or four days.

FORTRESS MONROE, 14th.

The flag of truce boat New York, from City Point, arrived last evening, with 650 exchanged prisoners of war, all privates, in charge of Capt Ashford, who left with them for Annapolis same evening.

The English and Austrian Consuls, George Moore and D Vansellerd, were on the New York, having been ordered out of the Confederate States by the rebel government.

It has been arranged by Gen one. Ludlow U. S. Commissioner for the exchange of prisoners, and Robert Ould, rebel Commissioner, that Surgeons shall not be treated as prisoners of war. No exchange of officers can at present be made. A number of our officers are held by the rebel authorities under charges intended to bring them under the operations of the act of the rebel Congress, which consigns to execution all officers taken in command of or in company with armed negroes or mulattoes.

Colonel Ludlow will not accept making any special exchanges of officers, acknowledge the right of the rebel authorities to discriminate among our forces by detaining some and releasing others. He insists that all shall be released under the cartel, and we have enough rebel officers in our possession to hold in reserve for retaliation or exchanges of enlisted men as on heretofore.

Richmond papers of the 13th have been received, which say the reported taking of Helena some days since grew out of the fact that the rebel troops made a feint in that place and succeeded in capturing a wagon train and some prisoners.

The Enquirer says Wm Bond, an English subject, from North Carolina, was put into Castle Thunder yesterday for improper sentence.

The propeller John Rhea, from Morehead City yesterday, arrived, this morning. There is no news from that Department.

THE METHODISTS IN THE FIELD. A Vicksburg correspondent gives the following—

The 24th Ohio is called a Methodist regiment. The colonel and several of the captains are Methodist preachers, and a majority of the soldiers are members of the Methodist church.—They did some of the best fighting of the day, yesterday. They went into the battle full of enthusiasm, and not one of them flinched during the engagement. Their major was wounded late in the day. He walked from the field, and, on his way to the hospital, captured a stalwart secessionist, and compelled him to carry him on his back to the provost marshal's headquarters. It was a laughable sight to see Colonel Wright riding his captive into camp. The casualty list of Methodists is very large, and shows that they stood up to their work like true soldiers. On returning from the battle field in the evening, they held a religious meeting at which the exercises were impressive. As I write, they are singing the words with "Old Hundred."

☞ The Commission appointed to locate the two Normal Schools to be established in this State, are in session. The places that have applied for the schools are Hampden, Bucksport, Gorham, Litchfield, Paris Au, Farmington, and it is not improbable but that Winthrop Academy and will be added to the list of competitors.—All of these places will shortly be visited by the commission, and a careful examination made before a decision is rendered. One of these schools will be put in operation next fall.

It will be remembered that an appropriation of four and a half townships of land was made by the Legislature to sustain both schools when established.—Augusta Cor. Boston Journal.

Fortress Ills., June 5

To the Editor of the Whig & Courier:

You have doubtless thought much upon the subject of mental association. It is discussed in all works on mental philosophy, and is a question of deep interest. As any illustrations of this subject will interest you and your numerous readers, I submit the following:

About twenty-five years since, while a mere boy, I was on the way to the gristmill, and while passing through a very deep mud hole, the poetical afflatus came upon me, and if you had been there you would have seen a very green specimen of humanity perched on the highest log, busily engaged in producing his first poem. Whether there is the same connection or not between mud and poetry that seems to exist between smoking and literature or between brandy and oratory, is a question undecided.

The other day, while trudging from Patten to Benton's Tebeau Falls, the roads were very bad indeed, and while passing through deep mud the spirit of poetry returned again after so long an absence, and as mending poetry is most easily practiced, I decided to start the machine once more. After screwing up and oiling, I put the hand on the great wheel, and it began to move in the most major of manner, as follows:

'Tis said beyond Atlantic's tide,
Where science first its wings did spread,
And iron feats of despots tread—
I first appeared a simple shape,
Ere I did scollar manners ape;
When man again this God rebuild,
By wonders ours others wishing behold;
Should I attempt my form to tell
I'm sure and beast resemble well.
I at your grave in sorrow stand,
Or tombs of kings or princes grand;
Though I among the dead remain
Ne'er shed a tear, or puff red pain.
I love the dance, the music well.
When you have eyed——

Here the machine rattled strangely, and on examination, I found that several cogs were broken out in the wheel that connects immediately with the great wheel. The weight of thought was too great. Slipping a band on to a smaller wheel, it started again. Though what follows does not possess the Miltonic grandeur and sublimity, or the Byronic brilliancy of the above, it will be admitted that for beauty of conception and felicity of expression, it stands very high, and fully equal to the poems by Mr. Harmon—

My first is seen in field and glen
In beauteous form arrayed,
And for my second many men
To cull hour have played.
My estate its glories will display
At setting sun, or rising day.

I expect to arrive in Bangor before Richmond is taken. Please say to our friends and mutual friend, David Barker, Esq., the Poet, that I shall claim the privilege of reading a poem before the Grand Union State Convention to be held in Bangor, July 1, proximo.

Yours poetically, E. A. H.

P. S. If you publish this, I shall call in and subscribe for your Daily, and if you do not, I may. The dear little children may be interested to know that the answer to the first is Image, and the second Dewdrop.

THE HAYNE REBEL SET. Some light may be thrown upon the question of why Major Lawrence Williams is by the following paragraph which was published in the Boston Journal of March 28th

Major Lawrence Williams of the 6th regular cavalry, who was a member of General McClellan's staff last winter, has been summarily dismissed the service. He has been trading around New York of late.

VALLANDIGHAM'S NOMINATION. The managers of the Democratic party in Ohio have taken a bold step in the nomination of Mr. Vallandigham. The platform upon which they have put him sufficiently explains the nomination, if there is any need of its being explained, to mean to let and reckless opposition to the war policy of Administration. For the moment, this action may be popular with the party—although we do not think so—but in any event we consider it a step fraught with danger to the country. Either the loyal cause will meet with marked successes by that time, in which case a decided opinion will settle upon the copperhead justice, or we shall have come to that gloomy and perilous point on in which the sound men of all parties will rally together and vote down everything which threatens to paralyze the arm of the Government.

HOW A FARMER LOST HIS GEESE. The Fall River News relates that a Swansey farmer was told by a fortune teller that a flock of missing geese had been stolen by a neighbor, who also meditated poisoning his horse. Farmer got a warrant and searched neighbor's premises, but no geese were there. Also got a watch dog to guard his horse. No one came to poison him & meantime the lost geese voluntarily returned.—The dog became weary of watching, gnawed off the rope that held him, and killed all the geese. Moral, don't believe fortune tellers.

THE TELEGRAPHED NEWS. One of our weekly neighbors, in complaining about the unreliable character of the telegraphic news, says:

The "Associated Press" and not the "telegraph," properly speaking, is the culpable party in all this matter of lying to the public; but every daily paper that publishes these dispatches is a member of the "association," and they collectively control it. This "Association" hires the telegraph by the job to send its despatches so made up by the several "Agents of the Associated Press." And to say men as verdant as not to believe that these several "Agents" at New York, Philadelphia, &c., do not know what is wanted of them!—that some despatches must be sent regularly to the morning and evening papers that they must be sufficiently exciting "to make the papers sell" &c. We once myself inside of the question a few weeks about a year ago and saw that the "associated" "telegraph" line through his associated motions; and can fully appreciate (and so do the public) the truth of the assertion, that the Telegraph, (to wit the "Associated Press") is getting to be the greatest liar of the age.

We are not disposed to deny that the despatches are frequently contradictory, and need confirmation before receiving full credence; but if they are all or mainly lies, what an unreliable paper must be that of our weekly neighbor who regularly borrows from the daily papers from four to six columns of these same "associated press" despatches!

WE would invite the attention of dealers to the above tobacco made by us. It is warranted to be of SEVEN QUALITY than any in the market, and as good as the best from Virginia. LARGE SALE
On Thomas' Hill
AT AUCTION!
J. B. FOSTER, Auctioneer.
On Wednesday, July 15th, 1863,
At 3 o'clock P. M., on the premises,

I SHALL SELL all the Lots now unsold, on the southerly side of James street (as per Plan of Lots made for J. W. Low, Esq., and recorded in the Penobscot Registry of Deeds, book 3, page 77)—beginning with Lot No 1, adjoining the residence of Mrs. Bailey, on Union street.

Lots No 1, 2, 3 and 5, front on James Street, and run back 100 feet, to an alley 16 feet wide. Lot No. 1, is 60 feet on James by 100 feet on Union St. Lots 2, 3, 4, and 5 are 77 by 100 feet. Lots 9, 10, 11, 12, and 13, are on the Easterly side of Thomas Court—and all but No 13, are 75 by 16 feet. No 13, has a front at about 100 feet on James street—and on this street about 300 feet, and adjoins the premises of Bernice Pitcher, Esq.

To a resident of the city, these Lots need no commendation. The stranger has only to examine, to admire them. There is no locality in the city that offers so many attractions for residences as Thomas Hill. Already, two of the most elegant mansions in the city have been erected there; and it cannot be long before all the vacant Lots will be taken up and occupied. These Lots combine the advantage of convenient proximity to the city with the retirement of the country. The View from Thomas' Hill is beautiful and grand beyond description.

This sale offers a rare opportunity to any one desirous of securing a desirable location for building, and to the capitalist who wants to invest where he can be sure of a profit.

The sale will be positive. One quarter of the purchase money to be paid down; and balance on easy time to suit the convenience of the purchaser—not exceeding four years—with interest.

A Plan of the Lots can be seen, by calling upon the Auctioneer, or upon J. W. LOW.

Such officers are requested to comply promptly with the provisions of that order, and to send their written applications, as therein provided, for promotion to the Invalid Corps (stating the character of their disability) with as little delay as possible, to the Acting Assistant Provost Marshal General of the State in which they may be.
